

Walk-in Counselling Service

We offer free counselling that can help support you through some of life's challenges. Our approach is pragmatic, strengths based, and culturally sensitive. We aim to understand the problem, set practical goals and provide support towards positive change.

Common Concerns we can help with: depression, anxiety, mental health concerns, relationship issues, alcohol and drug use, family conflict and parenting, grief and loss, low self-esteem and self-image, personal or job related stress.

- Everyone is welcome
- No health card is needed
- No referral or appointment required
- Subsequent visits are allowed
